

Call for Artwork for The Nutcracker (December 1-3, 2017)

DEADLINE: August 31, 2017

Join Iris Sutton, David Mollett, Barbara Santora, Todd Sherman, Mary Ver Hoef, and other Alaska artists who have created original artwork for North Star Ballet's annual production of The Nutcracker! Your art will be used for a poster and other publicity materials as well as the cover of the program.

How to Submit

The final size must be 18 x 24" and can be either horizontal or vertical in design. The artwork must allow space for production information and logos to be added above, below, to the side, or around it, but should not include the actual information. See 2016 poster below for an example.

You may submit more than one design for consideration.

No original artwork - electronic entries only in .jpg or .pdf format, min of 2MB.

Submit via email to northstarballet@gmail.com.

Once Selected

Once the selection has been made, the artist will be asked to submit their original art or an approved high-resolution electronic copy. Any pieces of artwork will become the exclusive property of North Star Ballet for the year, unless otherwise agreed to in writing.

Your work will be credited on the poster and in the program. Additionally, you will be featured on our Facebook page and in a press release introducing you and your artwork to the world.

Honorarium

$500 USD

Deadline for submission - August 31, 2017

If you have any further questions, please contact Executive Director Anne Ruggles at 907-451-8800 or northstarballet@gmail.com.

2016 poster art by Iris Sutton

Creative Movement - Ballet - Pilates - Performance

We are a Ballet School for the Community